Dear Customer,

We are excited to present our new catalog. We appreciate your interest in our titles, both old and new.

You may not be familiar with us, but for over 30 years, Atlantic Publishing has provided millions of readers the information they needed to jump-start their careers, start businesses, invest, build relationships, learn new skills, and live rewarding, fulfilling lives.

Our new releases don't stray from that pattern. Titles like "Unmasking Prejudice: Silencing the Internal Voice of Bigotry" and "Awakening Angel Connections: Heartfelt Angel Stories, Higher Learning Coaching" strive to help readers improve themselves on a deeper level. Other titles like "FSU'S Sons of the Sixties: A Case for the Defense" and "Fatherhood in 60 Minutes or Less" aim to entertain readers as well as teach valuable life lessons.

We also have numerous Young Adult titles that aim to help young people find their passion. Our books discuss adult subjects but are written for the sixth to 12th grade audience. One of our most popular series, "People and Events That Changed the Course of History", has several new releases that capture a specific anniversary of an important historical person or event. We've also introduced a new series titled, "Hidden in History", which focuses on the untold stories of female revolutionaries, scientists, world leaders, and athletes. Both series delve into historical analysis while focusing on the human element behind history.

No matter the subject matter, our deft writers make the subject approachable and easy to digest. Our award-winning authors, editorial team, and design staff strive to make our books and e-books the most comprehensive and up-to-date nonfiction books on the market. We go above and beyond to provide our readers with the best products.

We explain every topic in an easy-to-read way, and many of our books are bundled with companion CDs. We spend countless hours interviewing experts on each subject. Our products explain the ins and outs and provide insider secrets and proven methodologies on a wide variety of nonfiction subjects.

Many of our books contain case studies from people who share their techniques to achieve unprecedented success. You will find hundreds of tested hints, tricks, and secrets for achieving real-world success.

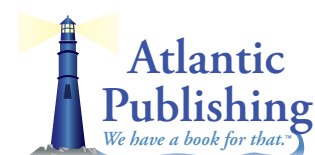

In all our books, where pertinent, we supply a glossary, an index, a timeline, a bibliography, and a dedicated page of additional resources. We thoroughly and individually check each source, and every fact is cited and double-checked for accuracy. Every one of our books has complete CIP data, and all of our books are presented to School Library Journal and other review sources for review.

Thank you for your interest in our books and e-books!

Sincerely,

Douglas R. Brown, President

Sherri L. Brown, Vice President

John Crowe and Dale McCullers, two former Seminole teammates, highlight the experiences of 12 FSU Hall of Fame defensive players and Sons of the Sixties. Their individual rise as star athletes and their relationships with their college coaches is woven into a tapestry of intriguing insights while the critical—and often-overlooked—role that defensive football plays in building an elite college football program is explored through the perspective of those who experienced it firsthand.
